

Focus

Here is a story about relationships. There are lots of useful phrases that can be used to talk about people and communication.

Vocabulary

supermarket	You strike up a conversation	hang out all of the time	When you bring it up	You drop it
Get upset	Pack up her belongings	You block her out	She's still hurt by the way things turned out	Vision

Questions

1. Where did they meet?
2. What are the four steps that lead to two people falling in love?
3. What did he notice about the girl?
4. What happens when the guy wants to talk about the problem?
5. Why did she leave him?
6. When she leaves, what 3 things does the man do?
7. Where do they meet again? What happens when they meet?
8. Who is to blame for the breakup?

Summary

1. Name five things the couple did.
2. Describe the man's house.
3. Why does the title Focus mean?
4. In the end, the man says, "You question your vision." What does that mean?
5. Where do you like to go on a date?