

Six Thinking Hats

What is it?

- It is a way to see the world differently.
- It helps you think differently.
- It helps you become a better English speaker.

White Hat: The data. Facts or missing facts.

Red Hat: Emotion. Feeling. Opinion

Yellow Hat: Benefits, Good points. What you like about it

Black Hat: Bad points. Problems. Mistakes you can find.

Green Hat: Creativity. Do something differently. What if was another way?

Blue Hat: Conclusions. The main idea. The Most valuable information.

Life Savers

Practice Your Six Thinking.Hats

Your turn.

1. Now we're going to practice with a thinking and speaking activity.
2. Work with a partner. Look at the picture.
3. Write down you ideas for each thinking hat.
4. Make a story.

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| White Hat: | The data. Facts or missing facts. |
| Red Hat: | Emotion. Feeling. Opinion. |
| Yellow Hat: | Benefits, Good points. What you like about it. |
| Black Hat: | Bad points. Problems. Mistakes you can find. |
| Green Hat: | Creativity. Do something differently. What if it was another way? |
| Blue Hat: | Conclusions. The main idea. |

Here is one example.

White Hat

What are some facts about lifesavers?

round, hole in the middle, hard, sticky, tastes like_____,
made by a company, made with sugar, letters on them

Red Hat

How do you feel about eating this Lifesaver and why?

excited, happy, curious, yucky, depressed, energized, surprised, etc

Yellow Hat

What are the good points about eating this Lifesaver?

Good taste, fun, the company who makes it makes a profit,
opportunity to share with others, stops better breath

Black Hat

What are some possible problems about eating Lifesavers?

choking, tooth decay, don't like flavor, litter, gain weight

Green Hat Thinking

What if there was no hole in the middle of the Lifesaver?

would look like all other hard candy,
could not put string through it to make a necklace
would get more candy for the money, couldn't try to put your tongue through it

Blue Hat

It's a fun candy to eat.
There are lots of different tastes.
It's been a popular candy for many years. Kids love it.
I wouldn't change anything.