

Quiz#2 Review

Part 1: Write a sentence with too much or too many with these prompts. Here are some examples to practice these questions.

- Noise/library
- Money/clothes
- Hungry/pizza
- Can't sleep/coffee
- Tokyo/people
- Traffic/cars

Part 2: Write a dialogue between two people. One person has a problem and is asking for advice. Be sure to include specific details and use at least two techniques for giving advice. (page 80)

Part 3. Write a few words to describe the meaning of these words.

conglomerate participate appetizer ambition foreign limb	concrete update tea breakfast funeral whisper	continue earn corn furniture garden wool contest check public bath century greed mix	contact rent prison clever handshake multiply	conversation join supermarket complain holiday murder contemplate salty sunflower debt ideal neighborhood	dessert tub accident duck industry noon	espresso entrée adventure fence kneel opinion buffet carton float razor pinch Fasten	peanut butter property Pledge rush scissors afternoon	popular rough Learn waiter manufacture message
Telephone desserts mixing bowl dairy products steering wheel queue	Chocolate, Holiday Scissors Aisle Great Wall popcorn	porridge syllable Electricity barn drill mosquito
Fare Respect library Dream Find Enjoy	Passenger Wait revenge Listen Trust homophone	Deck Love Tiny vowel Share cough