

Micro Lesson 2: Find Elements of Cohesion (Pointers) Worksheet 14-5

---

Instructions

Read the paragraphs below. Find and describe words and phrases that help create cohesion with pointers (repeated words and ideas).

Paragraph 1

Dynamic yoga is simple to do and produces benefits instantly. Normally known for its relaxation effect, dynamic yoga can boost your energy after 10 minutes of mild exercise and controlled breathing. The deep stretches and graceful movements help to unblock energy, improve muscle strength and increase stamina. According to experts, regular practice reduces stress and creates a feeling of inner peace. Go ahead and try it. Try it tonight and just might feel better.

Synonyms	Pronouns	Repeat a phrase, structure

Paragraph 2

Does your computer have a bug? The slang word bug, a computer problem, has been around for almost 70 years. The term was first used in 1940 after Grace Hopper, one of the first computer programmers, discovered a dead moth had caused her machine to stop working. When her friends walked into the room, they asked what she was doing. She said she was debugging her machine.
