

PRACTICE

Part A

Make a complex sentence with these prompts by adding a connecting word (from the list) and an independent clause.

- unless, when, as soon as, while, after

1. I usually go to the library ...
2. I will be ready to go ...
3. I work every day ...
4. My dad always turns on the TV ...
5. The children played in the backyard...

Part B

Finish the sentences by adding an independent clause.

1. As soon as I started talking, ...
2. Before leaving my house in the morning, ...
3. Although I enjoy travelling, ...
4. If you don't stop playing Smartphone games in class, ...
5. Now that you have finished school, ...

PRACTICE - POSSIBLE ANSWERS

Part A

Make a complex sentence with these prompts by adding a connecting word (from the list) and an independent clause.

- unless, when, as soon as, while, after
1. I usually go to the library after eating lunch.
 2. I will be ready to go as soon as I finish packing my bag.
 3. I work every day unless it's a holiday.
 4. My dad always turns on the TV when he gets home from work.
 5. The children played in the backyard while the mother was out shopping.

Part B

Finish the sentences by adding an independent clause.

1. As soon as I started talking, the store clerk turned his head and looked the other way.
2. Before leaving my house in the morning, I make sure the gas stove is turned off.
3. Although I enjoy travelling, the cost of airfare stops me from taking more than one trip per year.
4. If you don't stop playing Smartphone games in class, the teacher will take it away.
5. Now that you have finished school, it's time to start looking for a job.