

Freshman Conversation Quiz #1 Review

Some, not all, of the words and questions from this worksheet will be on the quiz.

1. VOCABULARY

- Vocabulary study sheet

Learn the words. That means spelling, meaning, synonyms and opposites. Some questions might look like these:

- What is the opposite of helpful?
- Word jumble: tcailpcar
- What is a synonym for reliable?

2. ALWAYS and AT LEAST, page 6 and 7

You will get a word prompt. Use that prompt to write a sentence with always plus a continuous verb and at least to show a bad point and a good point.

For example: late

- My friend is always coming to class late, but at least he studies hard.

3. PRESENT PERFECT, pages 12 and 13.

Read a prompt and then write a question and answer with the present perfect.

For example: visit.

- What city have you always wanted to visit?
- I've always wanted to visit London.

4. HAVE YOU EVER ...? Page 14

Read a prompt and write three sentences: a question plus two answers - one with present perfect and one with simple past tense.

For example: Osaka

- Have you ever visited Osaka?
- No I haven't visited Osaka.
- But I did visit Sapporo.
